Hello RDOS Directors,

I wanted to personally invite you to the following event.

This is a partisan event, nonetheless all are welcome and it is regarding two very serious issues that affect all our communities.

We hope for this to be an informative event as well as an opportunity to hear from the public. We will be addressing this issue from the provincial perspective.

Come discuss the opioid crisis and crime with Elenore Sturko, and Amelia Boulton.

Elenore Sturko is the Conservative MLA for Surrey South. Before entering politics, Elenore served as a Sergeant in the RCMP and was a soldier in the Canadian Armed Forces.

This is a free event and is from 5-7 on August 24 at Highway 97 Pub on 200 Ellis street Penticton.
